The Arrow

for 1942 . . .

Foreword . . .

This year's Arrow attempts to provide a lasting and graphic picture of the students and faculty at Lincoln High. We have designed and edited this Arrow for 1942 in our own original way attempting to present the things which spread their effect on the students and help to mold their minds during four years at Lincoln High. We hope the students and friends of V. H. S. find in this book a worthy successor to those of the past. May it awaken memories of happy school-day activities and lasting friendships, recall familiar faces and scenes, and bring to all a faithful record of years well spent.

We hope you are pleased with our effort. If what we have done affords you some slight pleasure we have accomplished our goal.

"Government of the students, by the students, and for the students"—such is the motto of the Student Council of V. H. S. For the past five years the Student Council has been responsible for presenting the students' side of questions dealing with school affairs to the administration of the school. As a body of fourteen student members representing all four classes, they are able to work as a go-between between the faculty and the students, to create a closer harmony between the various organizations of the school. Theirs always is the duty of creating and maintaining democratic feeling in every member of our school. This year's Council has been an extremely active organization, holding regular meetings once a week. The members have undertaken such worthy projects as the checking of Savings Stamp sales, and the administration of the Junior Red Cross in Vinton schools. The group started the student body down the road of fun and frolic by sponsoring the first school dance. It is also their duty to raise money in order to carry out meritorious endeavors. This duty has taken form this year through the purchase of National Honor Society pins by the Council. Marie Mahood has served the group as president this year; KaDel Urice has acted as secretary-treasurer; Mr. Paschal has sponsored the organization. Our Student Council furnishes a true picture of democracy in action.

D E D I C A T I O N

Miss Mouw, we staff members of this 1942 Arrow have reserved a spot in our hearts for you. You have been a true friend to all Vinton High School students.

Your arrival in Vinton three years ago was like the opening of a vast treasure chest by V. H. S. students. Among the lovely treasures we have found—a heart of pure gold—a personality of shining silver—enthusiasm like a sparkling sapphire. In short, we have found you, Miss Mouw—a perfect jewel.

From the curtain call of the all-school play in 1939 to the last act of this year's senior class play, you have been a "gem" of a director. Your kind words and tactful criticism have guided many an amateur actor through "thick and thin."

During your adventure with us in Lincoln High School, you have proved that "pep can make a school." Your constant interest and bubbling enthusiasm in all school activities has inspired us to great success.

And so, in return for the many lovely treasures you have given us, we give you "our treasure." It is with great sincerity that we dedicate our 1942 Arrow to you.

Our philosophy is to give credit where credit is due. In being consistent with this philosophy, we wish to recognize:

Our parents for their constant interest in our education.

Mr. Paschal for his patience and enthusiasm in sponsoring this book.

The Cedar Valley Times for being overly anxious to satisfy our wants in printing the Arrow.

The Greater Vinton Club for their wholehearted support.

Mr. Ed Grant for patient photographic interest.

Miss Weidner for her artistic hand.

The Arrow staff has devoted many tedious hours towards the 1942 senior publication. This is not only true of the editing staff but of the managing staff as well. To defray part of the expenses of this book, the staff sponsored a popularity contest through a waste paper campaign. Candidates for the honor were John Davis and Jean Burkhart, nominees from the freshman class, Evelyn Lasher and Dean Carlson from the sophomore class, Nadine Ransom and Raimond Struble from the junior class, and Marjorie Beresford and Frank King from the senior class. With each pound of paper that was submitted, ten votes were cast for that person's favorite candidate. The seniors, Frank and Marjorie, emerged the winners and were crowned "Popularity Queen and King" at the Arrow dance.

Through the efforts of eighteen determined salesmen, the sale of three hundred thirty books was made possible. The salesmen were: Virginia Snyder, Keith Carlton, Milly Kimm, Maxine Jackson, Jack Mozena, Janice Herbert, Elberta Lutz, Jean Skea, Emma Belle Wallace, Marian Frances Schueler, Robert Shotwell, Tommy Reisser, Marjory Crisman, Marjorie Beresford, Doris Williams, Helen Beresford, George Thiher and Lois Davis.

An orchid to Jean Skea, the super salesman, who sold the most books this year. Your sale of thirty-seven annuals, Jean, was really an accomplishment.

The National Honor Society . . .

SECOND ROW—Jean Milroy, Marian Frances Schueler, Helen Beresford, Janice Herbert, Joan Elson, Leone Miller, Faye Gaddy.

FIRST ROW—Patricia Tobin, Dorris Hays, Patricia Shoquist, Marie Mahood.

To be elected to the National Honor Society is the crowning achievement in the high school careers of those students who have succsesfully fulfilled the four ideals of the organization—scholarship, leadership, character, and service.

National Honor Society was organized in this school in 1925 and adopted the chapter name of Sigma Lambda Gamma in 1941.

The membership of the Society consists of twelve seniors and four juniors. The juniors elected carry on the work of the organization the following year. Those who became members of the Society last year are Dorris Hays, Marie Mahood, Patricia Tobin, and Patricia Shoquist. The seniors being elected to the organization this year are Virginia Snyder, Dorthy Thompson, Marian Frances Schueler, Leone Miller, Janice Herbert, Joan Elson, Helen Beresford, and Harvey Wyckoff. The four juniors elected this year are Norma Brewer, Faye Gaddy, Jean Milroy, and Raimond Struble.

The Purple and Gold . . .

THIRD ROW—Betty Bergstrand, Virginia Carlson, Joan Kruse, Nadine Ransom, Bill Hopper, Marjorie Crisman, Arlene Vogt, Ruth Skoog, Patricia Shoquist.

SECOND ROW—Bernice Stueck, Mildred Daughhetee, Gale Wienands, DeLores Deiter, Marybeth Hartman, Nadine Bobzien, Marian Frances Schueler.

FIRST ROW—Guinivere Cantonwine, Faye Gaddy, Valmah Patrilla, Jean Milroy, Virginia Harper, Leila Peterson.

"Fire?" "Accident?" "Murder?" No, just everyday school activity news. Who was cast in the all-school play? When will the next "Jitterbugs' Jive Session" be held? Such are assignments that the Purple and Gold staff members tackle every two weeks. And we can assure you that everyone on this year's staff has made a perfect touchdown. Every staff member must possess a "nose for news" that is available for service at anytime or anyplace. Along with this "nosey" quality, a reporter must be cooperative, willing to work, clever, and adept at writing.

Dorothy Thompson has served as editor this year; Jean Milroy, business manager; Faye Gaddy, junior assistant editor; KaDel Urice, sophomore assistant editor. Faye Gaddy will undertake the editorship next year with KaDel Urice replacing her as junior assistant.

Through the excellent cooperation and fine work of this year's staff, the Purple and Gold was accepted as a member of the Quill and Scroll, a national honorary society for high school newspapers. The staff has concentrated its efforts on improving the structure of the paper as well as improving the interest of subject matter. A twenty-three column set-up has been used as the standard paper. The staff is to be commended for its institution of the school magazine, "The Blue Jay," which was issued as the spring publication.

"Give a man a book he can read" is the motto of each librarian. Throughout the year the library class of fifteen girls from the three upper classes, under the leadership of Mrs. Luckey, helps V. H. S. students find the desired material—a good short story for literature, a current report for government, or the Life of Louis Pasteur for biology. They check out a large number of books, magazines, and the newspaper is never lying idle.

New books have been added this year—included are a few fiction; books for helping the graduate choose a profession; careers of every sort; lives of famous men; nature study and astronomy along with aeronautics and television. Also added were twelve new dictionaries and a set of encyclopedias.

Beside the regular routine work at the desk, the librarians serve as ushers at various school activities such as plays and concerts.

The Normal Training Club . . .

SECOND ROW—Miss Knipfer, Darlene Williams, Ruth Richardson, Wyla Notbohm, Doris Williams.

The Normal Training Department began work in September, 1941, with nine senior girls—later six juniors were made N. T. C.'s, however, the name was later changed to T. N. T. (Tomorrow's New Teachers) and will be known as such henceforth. Soon the following officers were elected: Helen Beresford, president; Lois Richart, vice president; Darlene Williams, secretary; and Geraldine Weisert, treasurer. With the help of Miss Knipfer, the sponsor, the year's program was made an interesting one.

We shall all remember Mr. Dillon's showing us, with an egg, the effects of alcohol. Neither will we forget the helpful suggestions given by Miss Weidner in her discussion of art for the elementary school. Miss Jarmon made the problems of a country school seem more real through the interesting report of her own rural school. Perhaps the most enjoyable program of the year was Mr. Baxter's rendition of "Ah, Sweet Mystery of Life" and "When Irish Eyes Are Smiling." And who doesn't enjoy Mr. Paschal's puns? But appreciated too were his hints on "Dealing With Discipline."

The year's social activities were culminated with a skating party in April and a farewell party for the seniors in May.

The "V" Club . . .

The "V" Club is the athletic society in high school for all boys receiving a major letter in a major sport. All letter winners are eligible for membership, however it is not compulsory that they join the organization.

Jack Mozena served the Club as president this year; Raimond Struble was vice-president and Frank King, secretary-treasurer.

Each year the "V" Club selects a sports queen, to be presented between halves of the homecoming football game. She also reigns over the Vinton Relays. This year they chose Marion Waldorf as queen.

A dance in the spring was sponsored by the Club to help raise funds needed for track expenses.

The G. A. V. Club . . .

 THIRD ROW—Marybeth Hartman, Jean Skea, Norma Brewer, Audrey Crisman, Betty Shotwell, Wyla Notbohm.
 SECOND ROW—Mardene Wood, Marjorie Beresford, Elsie Jacobsen, Martha Garwood, Mildred Daughhetee, Faye Gaddy.
 FIRST ROW—Miss Kerr, Lois Davis, Janice Herbert, Virginia Snyder, Patricia Shoquist, Joan Elson, Jean Milroy.

The Girls' Athletic "V" Club, better known as G. A. V., is one of the most prominent organizations in the extra-curriculum system of the Lincoln High School. This year our club has had a new sponsor, Miss Kerr. She has been very successful and has introduced many new, original ideas for the success of our organization.

The officers of the club this year have served the members very efficiently. They are: Patricia Shoquist, president; Jean Milroy, vice president; Virginia Snyder, secretary-treasurer.

The purpose of this organization is (1) to stimulate and organize a wholesome program of physical activities (2) to offer opportunities of leadership to each girl (3) to stimulate interest in sportsmanship and to promote sportsmanship attitudes and conduct (4) to stimulate interest in wholesome leisure time activities.

Two hundred-fifty points are required for membership in the club, these being gained through participation in the various girls' sports. No one is admitted until the end of her sophomore year.

The outstanding activities of the club during the year were the Christmas Alumni Dance, entertaining the Girls' Athletic Club from La Porte City, and the annual banquet held at the end of the year. The club had many more projects throughout the year such as teas, pot-luck suppers, parties and picnics.

The All High School Play . . .

Thrills, chills, suspense, romance and comedy were all found in the mystery play, "The Green Light," Miss Mouw's choice for the all high school production this year. An old woman (Leone Miller) who has slept for a solid year, and who, once she is aroused, may be able to tell who killed her spinster sister. "The Green Light"—floating slowly about in the darkness, writing letters in the dead spinster's hand and turning on victrola records. A mysterious old man called Aesop (Dean Hoefle) is always applying one of the famous fables and their morals to every situation. A suspicious-acting doctor, (Russ Parmater) in love with the sleeper, who seems to be afraid to have her awaken for fear of what she might tell! A handsome young nephew (Bob Shotwell) brought up by the spinster sisters, hating one and loving the other, who might well have been the murderer, and who is obsessed with fear that the dead woman has come back to haunt him. A lovely young niece (Marie Mahood) who has come out to her aunt's home for the Christmas holidays in answer to the nephew's frantic plea. A famous girl writer of spooky tales (Patricia Tobin) and her screw-ball newspaper reporter fiancé (Harvey Wyckoff) both arrive at the home to make the holidays merry and jolly, but are frightened out of their wits after they have been in the house ten minutes! A spirit medium, (Faye Gaddy) tries to separate two souls fighting for possession of the sleeper's body, and a Norwegian servant, (Patricia Shoquist) apparently knows more about the mysterious happenings than she cares to admit!

These are the types of characters and situations you found in "The Green Light," one of the most novel mystery comedies ever put on in Vinton.

The Senior Class Play . . .

SECOND ROW—Mildred Daughhetee, Helen Beresford, Elberta Lutz, Shirley Rogers.

The Senior Class Play always climaxes the dramatic activities of the year, so it is an honor for any senior to be chosen on the cast. This year the senior class and Miss Mouw chose to give the sophisticated comedy, "The McMurray Chin," a play with quite a different type of plot.

Ellen McMurray (Marie Mahood) is the belle of the town her grandfather founded. It is the McMurray chin—that feature of determination and strength—that is always responsible for their success. But now that Ellen has married Philip Lansdale, (Harvey Wyckoff) it looks as though the Lansdales have taken over. Ellen can't even take care of her own baby, because Aunt Deborah (Helen Beresford) insists upon taking complete charge. To insure that science is given its proper place in the child-rearing program, Aunt Deborah places an iron-willed professional nurse (Shirley Rogers) in charge. Ellen's friends are ignored; and rumors begin to circulate concerning the child which they are never allowed to see and mainly about what has become of the McMurray iron-will.

But when Philip wants to sell the McMurray Iron Works, in which he owns a controlling interest, Ellen revolts, for he needs her signature to complete the sale. She refuses to give it. She goes to the home of her friend (Mildred Daughhetee) to get out from under the Lansdale domination, and two weeks later, when the baby is ill, goes home with her own doctor and nurse, takes matters into her own hands, and triumphs.

The Ham Actors . . .

FIRST ROW—Guinevere Cantonwine, Mardene Wood, Dorothy Shotwell, Faye Gaddy, Nancy Hartman, Florence Campbell, Colleen Lynch, Betty Bergstrand, Margaret McAtee.
 SECOND ROW—Phyllis Kubik, Virginia Carlson, Margaret Stickney, Nadine Ransom, Hazel Mahurin, Lois Davis, Joan Elson, Georgia Wayson, Kathryn Bickel.
 THIRD ROW—Dorothy Williams, Pansy Raitt, Darlene Williams, Betty Aten, Marybeth Hartman, Doris Dickson, Doris Williams, Mary Lois Bruce.
 FOURTH ROW—Dean Hoeffle, Bill Hopper, Kenton Breidenthal, Oda Poorman, Bill Berry, Robert Clime, Dick Anderson.

Early in the year a group of one-act play enthusiasts organized under the sponsorship of Miss Stanley, calling themselves the "Ham Actors." The name, however, was not appropriate, for the plays presented during the year were especially well done.

A few rather irregular meetings were held during the year and at the first one very capable officers were elected. Boyd Gunn was elected president; Dorothy Franklin was elected vice-president; and Nadine Ransom became secretary and treasurer.

Throughout the year three groups of three one-acts were presented.

Comprising the first group were: "Mr. Bumpus," "Heads He Burns" and "The Murders of Miriam."

The second group was made up of "The Ghost of Green Mansion," "The Torn Cap" and "With the Help of Pierette."

The third group consisted of "Curses, Foiled Again," "A Day for Truants" and "The Powers That Be."

The Pep Club . . .

TOP ROW—James Banse, Harold McNamara, Lyle Burkhart, Gale Wienands, Miss Mouw.
SECOND ROW—Faye Gaddy, Marjorie Beresford, Janice Herbert, Maxine Jackson, Doris Dickson.
FIRST ROW—Hazel Mahurin, Robert Shotwell, Shirley Rogers.

"S-s—Boom—Bah Yeah—Vinton—Rah"

Who but an active Pep Club could stimulate an interest in the sports activities of V. H. S.?

Lead by those vivacious feminine cheer leaders, Hazel Mahurin, and Shirley Rogers, and that effervescent Bob Shotwell, the club's active contingency in the school's cheering section consisted of: Lyle Burkhart, Faye Gaddy, Marjorie Beresford, LaVonne Wheeler, Janice Herbert, Gale Wienands, Maxine Jackson, Doris Dickson, Mark Kruse, Jim Banse, Harold McNamara, Bill Hopper, Virginia Harper, Shirley Rogers, Hazel Mahurin, Bob Shotwell, Tom Register.

From Bill Hopper's representation of the famous "Dr. Cuttemup" to the illustrious take-offs on the faculty, the entire student body was entertained at pep meetings by original stunts put on by various club members.

Although the club does not, as yet, have deep-rooted foundations, and traditions, the more active members sincerely hope that in another year there may be a bigger and better organization maintaining all those ideals of sportsmanship and cooperation we have had during the present year endeavored to construct.

The A Cappella Choir . . .

 SECOND ROW—Oren aylor, Dean Hoefle, Charles Nichols, June Schmidt, Emma Belle Wallace, Janice Herbert, Patricia Tobin, Dorris Hays, Helen Beresford, Kenton Breidenthal, Dick Anderson.
 THIRD ROW—Herman Wax, Bill Wright, Lois Davis, Mildred Daughhetee, Norma Brewer, Marjorie Crisman, Hazel Mahurin, George Thiher, Tom Reed.

The A Cappella Choir, under the very capable direction of Miss Freerksen, is one of the finest musical groups Vinton has had. Instead of a mixed chorus the mixed group of voices is now being called the A Cappella Choir. All the singing is done without accompaniment. The A Cappella Choir is composed of thirty-five voices. They entered the preliminary contest held at Vinton and won a division I rating. On May 1, they entered the state contest at Oelwein, forced all competition aside, and won a division I rating there. The group chose for their selections "Beside Thy Cradle Here I Stand" by Bach, "Alla Trinita" by Burney, and "Jesus on the Water Side" by Ashenbrenner.

We hope the A Cappella Choir, of which we are so proud, will continue to be the fine group that they have been in the past.

The Girls' Glee Club . . .

The girls' glee club can well be proud of its achievements. The twenty-eight girls in glee club worked very conscientiously, always put their heart and souls into the songs, and the result was a very fine organization. They won a division I rating at the district contest held at Vinton, and entered the state contest at Oelwein. They richly deserved the honor because of their performances at many programs during the year. The contest numbers they chose were "Christus Factus Est" by Cydre Brant, "Listen to the Lambs" by Detts and "Clouds" by Bircsak.

We hope the glee club next year and in the following years will continue the good work. The senior members were: Lois Davis, Mildred Daughhetee, Marjory Crisman, Elberta Lutz, Hazel Mahurin, Dorris Hays, Emma Belle Wallace, Janice Herbert, Patricia Tobin, Patricia Shoquist, Marie Mohaad, Bernice Davin, Marian Schueler and Margie Davis.

The Musicale . . .

Sparkling comedy, full choral numbers, solos and dance pieces by the orchestra were highlights of Miss Freerksen's vocal groups' musical comedy. "Stars Over the Campus." All out for something modern, the speech class wrote the script, planned the specialty numbers, took care of publicity and employed the aid of the art class for scenery.

There were "Stars Over the Campus" while the complete story of the Vottawatomie college students unrolled. The first act, a pep meeting, disclosed the coming of a very important football game. Johnny and Janet, Bill and Marybelle, Tom and Anne at this meeting made dates for the formal dance that evening. The dance presented a new picture complete with cigarette girls to lend atmosphere. Couples glided about to popular music by Dick Anderson's orchestra. Crashing this party were the three ever clowning, ever scene-stealing, sailors. A brilliant floor show was the keynote of this act, presented by the vocal groups in a trio, sextet, glee club, quartet, solos, and both vocal and piano duets. Three dances, a jitterbug couple, an exotic Mexican couple, and a novelty glowworm (complete with batteries) were presented. After the dance the romantic football hero, Johnny Green, wooed Janet with a baritone solo and finished triumphantly by "hanging" his fraternity pin. Before the girls' dormitory the couples gathered for the last scene and answered the house mother's urgent call with a last musical adieu, "When Day Is Done." And so, curtains and stars fell over the Vottawatomie campus.

The Band . . .

FIRST ROW—Wayne Hall, Betty Clausen, Leila Peterson, Catherine Conder, Jeanne Clausen, Elma Geater, Faye Gaddy, Bill Berry, Betty Hensing, Betty Walters, Mary Countermine, Joan Kruse, Marjory Richardson.

"1, 1, 1,"—A copyright of three judges' marks on V. H. S. band ballots. Yes, three ones and our band won Superior as state victors. Their contest number was a heavy overture, Richard III by Edward German. First winning the district contest held here, they then toured, with vocal winners, to Oelwein April 30, May 1 and 2.

Other entries in the district contest were Flute Quartet, French Horn Quartet, Brass Quartet, Woodwind Quintet, Clarinet Quartet, Brass Sextette, and Trumpet Trio with Flute, French Horn, Trombone, Baritone, Tuba, String Bass, Trumpet, Clarinet Oboe, Bass Clarinet, Bassoon, Alto, Tenor, and Baritone Saxophone soloists also. From these, Vinton was represented in the state contest by the Brass Sextette, Trumpet Trio, and Woodwind Quintet plus the soloists—Marion Waldorf, Trumpet; Merle Chalupsky, Baritone; Raimond Struble, Trombone. The Alto Clarinet soloist, Ruth Richardson, and Mixed Clarinet Quartet were state entrees but did not compete in the district contest.

The Woodwind Quintet composed of five girls—Betty Clausen, Jeanne Clausen, Joan Braginton, Faye Gaddy, and Joanne Kruse was the only chamber group to rate superior at the state. Of Vinton's entrees, Marion, Raimond, and the Mixed Clarinet Quartet all rated excellent.

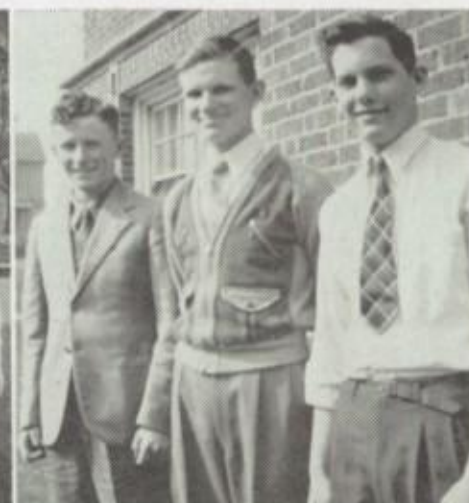

State honors, however, are still not the highest for we can also proudly introduce three National Honor Soloists—Betty Clausen, Clarinet; Jeanne Clausen, Bassoon; Dick Anderson, Tuba.

As you recall, our band is also a marching band with Faye Gaddy directing drum major and Nadine Ransom twirling drum major. New stunts were learned along with one new song for each home game, being openly welcomed at the halves by all football fans.

The Vocational Agriculture . . .

 FIFTH ROW—Frank King, Robert Morrow, Ted Fuehrer, Robert Baldrige, Floyd Yerkes, Warren Acuff, Vernon Ohrt, Allen King.

This year there are sixty-four boys enrolled in Vocational Agriculture. During the four years in high school, the boys take four courses. They are Farm Shop as freshmen; Animal Husbandry as sophomores; and in the junior and senior years, Farm Management and Farm Crops are alternated. Each boy enrolled has some type of home supervised practice work where he has an opportunity to put into practice some of the material he studies.

The Future Farmers of America were also active throughout the year. George Thiher was elected president; Frank King, vice-president; Wayne Wilson, secretary; Harold Lindahl, treasurer; Paul Mealhow, reporter; and Nile Kotouc, watchdog.

In the achievement contests held at the Iowa High School Agriculture Congress, the Vinton teams led the state with four superiors and three merits. Wayne Wilson received the highest award issued by the Iowa F. F. A. Association, that of Iowa Farmer.

The Agriculture Show . . .

This year's Grain, Poultry, and Egg Show was one of the largest and most successful ever held. It was the fourteenth annual show that the boys have had. The show was supervised by George Thiher with the help of his two assistants, Harold Lindahl and Frank King, while all sixty-four boys in the department assisted in some capacity.

It was estimated that 2,500 people attended the Show during the three days. Highlights on the program were the evening performances which featured Herb Plambeck of WHO; Francis Johnson, President of the Iowa Farm Bureau Federation; and Michael McElroy and Red Rowe of WMT.

The Poultry division showed the greatest improvement in quality of any division this year with the entry of 475 birds. There were also 450 samples of commercial grain; 90 samples of hay, soybeans, wheat, barley, and show oats; 900 samples of show corn; and 50 dozen eggs.

The Food Show . . .

TOP ROW—Elsie Jacobsen, LaVonne Ohrt, Virginia Williams, Miss Lucas.

FIRST ROW—Marian Frances Schueler, Janice Herbert, Joan Elson, Emma Belle Wallace, Darlene Wilson.

Homemaking! Many of you think it consists only of cooking and sewing. Those are the days gone by. In this day and age we are taught how to meet every situation and be happy wherever we are.

First year homemaking consists of personal grooming, personality, sewing problems, and, in food, how to prepare and serve breakfasts.

The second-year girls discuss the problem of getting the most out of their dollar; sewing consists of work on woolen and silk garments; their more advanced work in cooking is making out dinner menus and then serving them.

For the first time in V. H. S. the girls have been offered a third year of homemaking. These girls have worked hard this year, besides their class problems which included units on building, remodeling and furnishing homes; crafts; how to spend leisure time; and health problems.

Under the supervision of the third year homemaking class a Vinton Foods Show was held in connection with the Benton County Grain, Egg, and Poultry Show. It was possible to enter sixteen different entries. The various classes were cake, cookies, candy and bread. Cash awards and ribbons were given to the winners in each division.

In addition, each girl has a home project or problem which is supervised by the instructor, Miss Lucas.

The major purpose of the homemaking course is to develop the girls to be competent leaders in any job they might choose.

The Team In Action . . .

FRANK KING
TOM LOCKHART

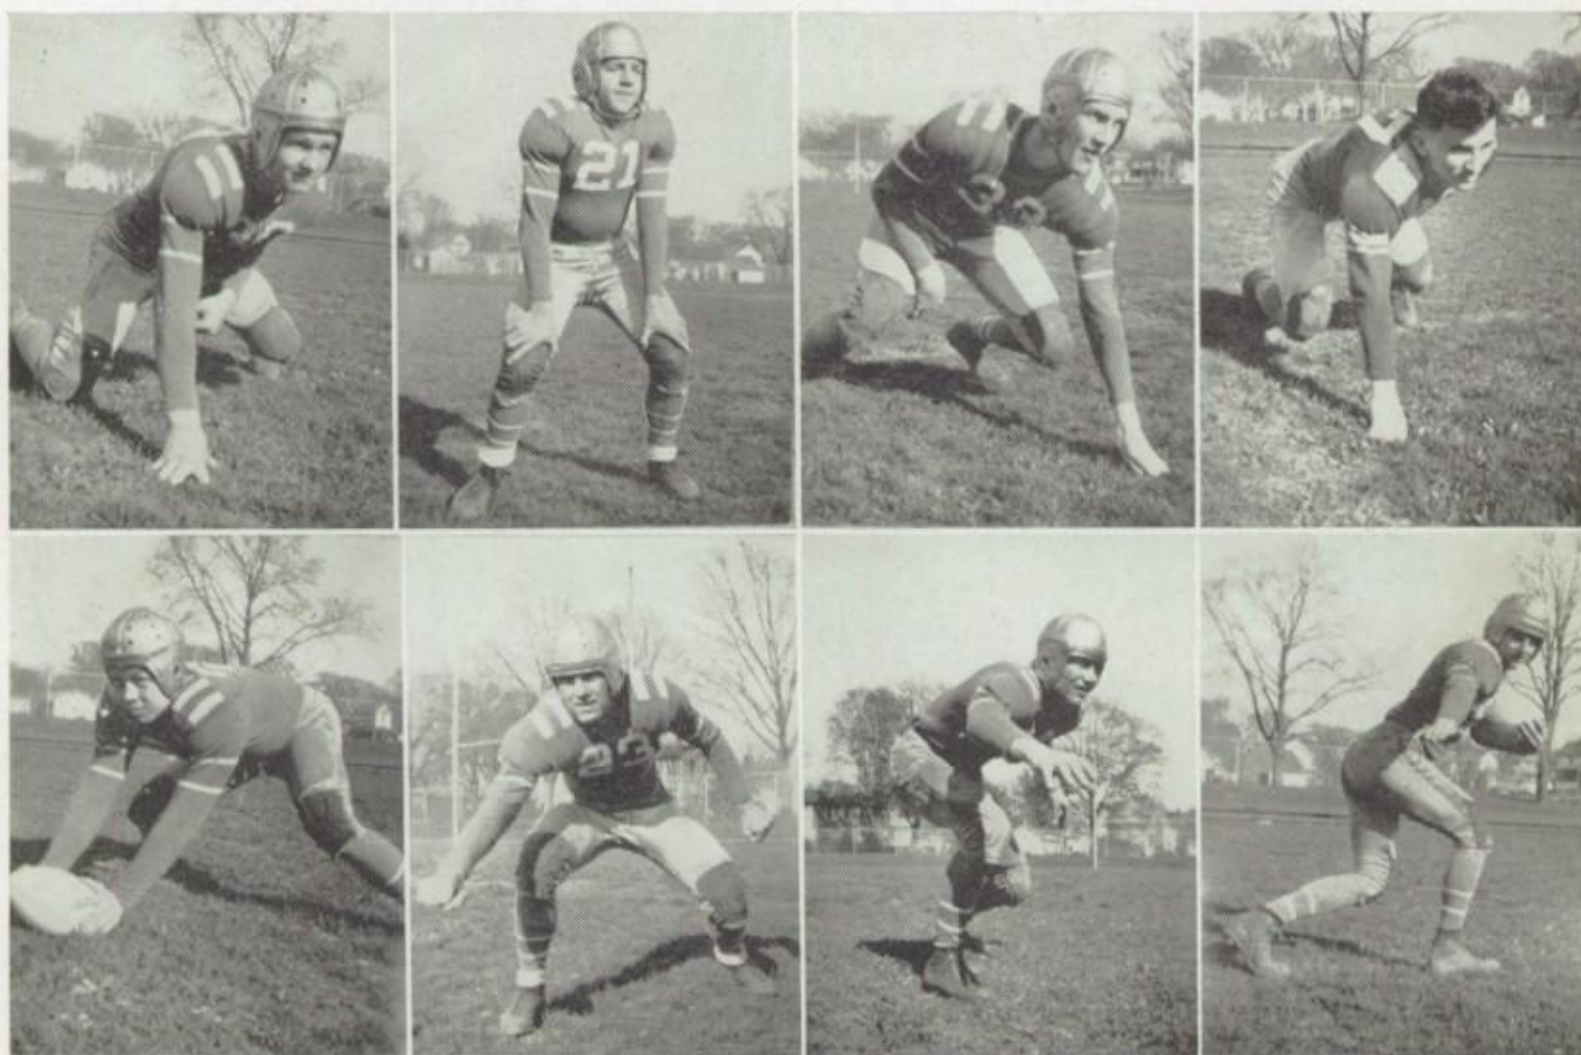

JOHN FOWLER
GORDON KUNZ

HAROLD McNAMARA
LYMAN OPPELT

JACK MOZENA
RAIMOND STRUBLE

Captain Frank King, Guard—Frank earned his second letter this year and was elected captain. He played brilliantly till a broken bone in his foot forced him to the sidelines near the end of the season. Frank's play was highlighted by his vicious tackles and his speed in pulling out of the line and leading interference. He will be hard to replace next season. John Fowler, Halfback—Johnny, earning his second letter, was noted for his long runs into opponents' territory. Once this fleet-back got under way, he was hard to stop. He also was a great passing back, setting up many long throws for scores. He is a senior and will be greatly missed next year. Harold McNamara, End—"Mac" won his first letter this year at end, although he played tackle. He could play either position with equal ability. He was a vicious tackler, and was usually in on every play. Jack Mozena, Tackle—"Moze" was another veteran of two campaigns and really came into tackle and many a play received a loss when they headed his way. Thomas Lockhart, Center—Tom was the regular center till a broken bone in his arm put him on the sidelines. He was a good defensive and offensive center, and should be at his best the next two years. Gordon Kunz, Tackle—"Windy," although only a sophomore, earned his second letter. He was noted for his hard driving tackles, and his vicious blocks. His size made him a terror among opponents' backs, for when Windy hit them they usually went down. Lyman Oppelt, Fullback—"Punk" stepped into a first string position this year and performed like a veteran. His size was a big advantage as he could plow through the line for those extra yards. He was also a good blocker and defensive man. Raimond Struble, Quarterback—Rai, a junior, called signals for the team. Although, using a new system, Rai would always use the right play at the right time. He was a good blocking back, leading many of the plays for long gains.

The Team In Action . . .

ALLEN KING
DALE FRY

DEAN CARLSON
RUSSELL PARMATER

KEITH CARLTON
DEAN SELKEN

IRVIN PARRY
WAYNE HALL

Allen King, Guard—Allen was a tough boy in the middle of our line although yielding weight to most of his opponents. He had the fight to knock them around and will be counted on to fill his brother's shoes in the next two years. Dean Carlson, Quarterback—Dean earned his first letter this year. He was the smallest man on the squad but this didn't slow him down any. He was a good blocker and called signals from the tricky "T" formation with the ability of a veteran. Keith Carlton, Tackle—Keith, who earned his first letter this season, was a reserve tackle up until the Marengo game. Then with one of the regulars on the bench, Keith stepped in and helped spearhead Vinton's 26 to 7 victory. His play was good throughout the year on both offensive and defensive. Irvin Parry, Guard—Irvin was a fast aggressive guard who could pull out of the line and lead plays down the field. He was very cool and calm under fire, and could often diagnose opponents' plays and stop them before they could get started. Dale Fry, Center—Dale, a senior broke into the lineup for the first time this season and showed that's where he belonged. He was a great defensive center and time after time would be seen in opponents' backfields stopping plays. Russell Parmater, End—Russ, a junior, earned his first letter this year. He was a good, scrappy end. He was always alert for plays coming his way, and would either get the ball or catch passes. Dean Selken, End—"Slug" was a big, rugged end and he was especially good at sifting behind opponents' backs and snatching passes. His play was good throughout the season and his next two years should be good ones for him. Wayne Hall, Halfback—Wayne seemed always possessed with that "never say die" spirit, and played hardest when the game was tough. He was a hard driver for his size and carried the ball on reverses for many good gains. He is a junior and will be counted on heavily next season.

RAIMOND STRUBLE
BILL WRIGHT

DEAN SELKEN
WAYNE HALL

JAMES HART
DALE FRY

Captain John Fowler, Forward—Johnny, a 3-year veteran, finished out a brilliant high school career by breaking all existing conference scoring marks. He set a single game record of 33 points, a new season mark of 148, and also set a new school record of 347 points. He had a great variety of shots making it hard for opponents to stop him. He was elected captain of the team and is a senior. Gordon Kunz, Guard—"Windy," only a sophomore, had amazing speed for his size. His steady play held opponents down throughout the season. He was a good rebounder and could really get off the floor. He will be expected to do better things in his two remaining years. Rai Struble, Guard—Rai earned his second letter this season. He played a steady game at guard. His close guarding stopped many opponents' thrusts at the basket. He was a good ball handler and dogged the ball wherever it went. He is a junior and will be counted on next season. Dean Selken, Center—Playing his first season as a regular, Dean broke into the lineup shortly after the start of the season. He was a tough rebounder under both baskets. He is only a sophomore with two seasons ahead of him. James Hart, Forward—Jimmy made his first letter this season. He was a clever ball handler and a good shot. Although yielding the height advantage to almost every opponent he could trick them out of position time and again for shots at the basket. Gale Wienands, Guard—Gale earned his first letter this year. He could not make the lineup till the middle of the season but from there on out his speed made him the spearhead in Vinton's lightning fast break. He was a good defensive player holding his men well in check. Dean Carlson, Forward—Dean was the third man to just miss making his letter. Though only a sophomore he performed well when in the game. He could play either forward or guard with equal ability and will be counted on for a starting berth next season. Bill Wright, Center—Bill could perform equally well at either center or forward and played both positions when regulars were out of action. He was a demon on rebounds and had a good assortment of shots. He is a junior and will be relied upon next year. Wayne Hall, Guard—Wayne, a junior, failed to earn his letter but was a steady performer on the second team. Wayne saw considerable action on the first team near the end of the season and will be a valuable man for the coming season. Dale Fry, Guard—Dale, a senior, didn't quite make his letter as he failed to report for practice the first part of the season. He played good ball as a reserve guard and was near a first string position at the end of the season.

The Track Team . . .

SECOND ROW—James Smittkamp, Warren Acuff, Glenn Dulin, John Davis, Dick Byam, John Richart, Lucien Thompson.

The first meet of the season was the state indoor meet at Iowa City. Vinton made a good showing finishing fifth. Gale Wienands placed first in the high jump, broad jump, and pole vault. John Fowler and Raimond Struble supplied Vinton's other points by placing second in two events.

The next meet was the Cedar Falls Relays and it was Wienands again who scored most of Vinton's points with a second in the pole vault and third in the high jump.

Vinton next engaged in the Mid-Six Conference meet and finished third. John Fowler stood out for Vinton, placing first in the broad jump and hurdles and third in the hundred yard dash. Raimond Struble took first in the high jump, second in the pole vault, and second in the broad jump.

The seventh annual Vinton Relays were held here on May 15th. The relays are always a highlight in Eastern Iowa and are attended by many of the leading schools of this section of the state.

A collage of 20 black and white photographs depicting various high school sports activities. The images include track and field events like running, jumping, and throwing; football games with players in action; basketball games with players and spectators; and individual portraits of athletes. One athlete's jersey clearly shows the name "ANTON".

Basketball . .

The basketball season was made more interesting this year by the introduction of "zone defense" by Miss Kerr, the new physical education instructor. The teams put forth some very exciting games with the seniors winning the tournament. The juniors took second honors, sophomores captured third place and the freshmen were last.

The girls from La Porte City came down for a game this spring. It was a clean game and close throughout. Vinton won by 27-20.

Joan Elson was basketball chairman.

JUNIORS—Audrey Crisman, Faye Gaddy, Martha Garwood, Elsie Jacobsen, Jean Milroy, Eleanor Noeller, Leila Peterson, Nardine Ransom, Stella Salts, Darlene Wilson.

Volleyball . .

The volleyball games were good and exciting this year. Some of the former rules were changed but the new ones seemed to help increase the interest of the game.

Mildred Daughhetee was the volleyball chairman, and with the supervision of Miss Kerr we had a very good season.

The ratings of the tournament were as follows: Seniors, first; juniors, second; sophomores, third; freshmen, fourth.
